CLOSE OF THE CAMPAIGN.

Democrats in an Effort to Save Sullivan Offering to Sacrifice All Other Candidates.

When the present municipal canvass opened the Journal intimated that the Democratic programme contemplated the election of a Democratic Mayor, rather than the election of a Democratic Council, and that the Democratic managers were prepared to sacrifice any chances they might have of electing any Democratic candidate for Council or the Board of Aldermen if thereby they might gain any votes for the head of their ticket. The reason for this willingness to give up any prospect of a Democratic majority in the legislative branch of the city government, in exchange for help for their mayorality candidate, was based on their belief that the next Legislature will pass a law authorizing the creating of a City Board of Public Works, to be appointed by the Mayor, and that in this way, if they succeeded in filling the Mayor's chair with a creature of their own choosing, they would be able to control the management of city affairs through his appointees. Subsequent events have shown that this plan is being worked for all it is worth by the schemers who kicked Norton out so unceremoniously to make Sullivan the Democratic candidate for Mayor. This week the Democratic candidates for Council and the Board of Aldermen were put on the market without reserve by the Demo-cratic ring agents, and the figures at which some of these candidates were offered would have astonished the most hardened purchaser of second-hand material. In the Ninth ward, yesterday, Democrats were offering two Woollen votes for one for Sullivan, and in the Fifth ward, Theo Smither, the Republican candidate for Alderman in the Second district, was offered five votes in exchange for one for the head of the Democratic

The same kind of propositions were made by Democratic workers in other wards of the city, and at one time during the afternoon it looked very much as though the entire Democratic Council and Aldermanic ticket was on the auction-block, to be pedout at any figure that could obtained. It is needless to state that these propositions got scant consideration from the people to whom they were addressed. Republicans were feeling particularly good yesterday, and amply satisfied with the material they had on hand. "There is no reason to be found, either on principle or policy," said a prominent Republican worker, "why a single Republican vote should be diverted to serve the schemes of Democratic managers. We have a clear victory within our reach in the election of Coburn and Tage and a com-fortable working majority in both branches of the city legislature. All that is needed is for every Repub-lican who believes in an intelligent and efficient administration of municipal affairs by men whose integrity and ability have been fully demonstrated, to come out and deposit his vote unscratched and unmutilated by the insertion of any Democratic distigurements. If that is done we will achieve a success that will put a quietus on Democratic 'fine work' and the defamation of reputable citizens by Democratic allies for some time to come.

Difference Between Two Candidates. "Democrats are claiming for Judge Sullivan that he can be relied upon to do the right thing at the right time," said a prominent lawyer yesterday. "In point of fact, no more timid, irresolute and shrinking man ever sat on a judicial bench than Sulhvan when he filled the unexpired portion of Judge Ayres's term, If John Coburn had | Boston, Mass.

been in Judge Sullivan's place at that time, that scoundrel John E. Sullivan would never have been permitted to make way with the many thousands of dollars of trust funds held by him as county clerk, and which constituted the sole reliance of many widows and orphans, and sane and insane dependents. Judge Sullivan knew of his namesake's short-comings, because the latter had been cited to appear before him time and again for failure to pay over the funds on the order of the courts. He had heard such lawyers as Ferd Winter denounce John E. Sullivan in open court as a thief and threaten to lock him up in two hours unless he produced money belonging to clients of the attorney, and yet when applied to for rules against the thieving county clerk, Judge Sullivan not unfrequently refused them, saying he would see the clerk and endeavor to have the matter arranged. It John E. Sullivan had been his own kinsman as well as his his own kinsman as well as his political associate, and had undertaken to withhold and convert funds under control of the court, no considerations, political or otherwise, would have deterred General Coburn from doing his full duty promptly in the premises. He would neither have refused rules against the thief until he could confer with him and endeavor to arrange a settlement, nor paltered with him until he got away with his booty. It is the essential difference be-tween the two men that Coburn will act promptly when he knows his duty, and Sul-

ivan will shirk or delay in assuming any responsibility that may involve any unpleasant consequences to himself. Swift and the Workingmen. The News makes a feeble attempt to discredit the statement that Elias B. Swift, the Democratic candidate for city clerk, tried to undermine his fellow-workmen in the Sentinel press-room at the time the Minute was being run on the Sentinel's presses. It says that James Hawkins, whom Swift tried to supplant, was doing his work at a hand-to-mouth salary, and that the "feeders" were working for less than living wages. If this were true, it would only make Swift's performance the more despicable, for he offered to do the work at still lower rates, and the part of his proposition on which he relied for success was that he would cut the "feeders'" wages down from $1 a day to $4 a week. James Hawkins, who was seen yesterday, stated that he had not, up to that time, said anything about Swift, but that what had been printed was true. "As to the statement in the News," continued Mr. Hawkins, "that my feeders did not like me, that is true only of Swift, and his dislike probably grew out of the fact that I discharged him. I think he would undermine any one if he had the opportunity. As for my hand-to-mouth salary, of which the News speaks, I had $27 a week, and I do not consider that hand-to-mouth wages. I was in the Sentinel's employ seventeen Bogus Republican Tickets. Bogus Republican tickets were distributed throughout many wards in the city, last night, by Democratic "fine workers," and in some instances the counterfeits are calculated to make trouble unless closely watched. One of these alleged Republican tickets is printed in blue ink, with the name of the candidate for Council erased. The voter who uses it may suppose that he is simply throwing away his vote on Councilman, but in point of fact he is throwin away his vote on all offices mentioned o the ticket, the ballot being illegal one. for the reason that the manner in which it is printed, and the color of the ink used give it a mark by which it may be distinguished from any other ticket, thereby constituting the distinguishing mark prohibited by the statute. The ingenuity which would make a voter lose his entire vote by making him believe he was only scratching one name, is a Democratic patent which is not likely to be infringed on by Republicans. Now that it is thoroughly undertood it will that it is thoroughly undertood it will probably result in the depositing of straight Republican tickets procured from straight and reliable Republican sources.

Bad for the Democracy. "There is a paper that means sure defeat for the Democratic ticket to-morrow," remarked W. J. Bowen, in the county recorder's office, as he handed the reporter the list of yesterday's real estate transfers. "For the past two city elections there have always been just thirteen transfers on the day before, and the Democrats have always been defeated. This time it has hap-pened again and I think the charm will

Political Notes. Republicans were ready to take all bets offered yesterday, though there were few o any significance proposed.

The Manning-Cooper circular to the colored voters was a waste of postage. "We know a Democrat when we see him," said a colored train-man yesterday, "no matter what his color is."

There is a growing feeling, among the German element particularly, that a vote for Sullivan means a vote to place the city control in the hands of a triumvirate of demagogues made up of Gabriel Schmuck, Eli Heiney and H. S. Bigham.

Withino Labor candidate in the field this year, the feeling among those who voted that ticket in the last municipal election is strongly in favor of Coburn and Taffe as candidates who could be relied upon to favor the interests of workingmen.

While the Republicans yesterday were very hopeful they felt that no voter should consider his vote not needed. "I would urge upon every member of the party," said one, "to go to the polls. An indifferent Republican encourages Democrats, and this is not a time to encourage Sullivan and his backers, with the Coy gang not far off."

Moody Expected to Come Here. FAt the Evangelical Ministers' Imeeting. held yesterday morning, in the Y. M. C. A parlors, Rev. W. F. Taylor, of the First Baptist Church, read a paper on "Christ in Art," which was full of interest. There was some talk of evangelist Moody and his work, and a movement is already on foot to invite him to hold a series of meetings in this city. He and Francis Murphy have been working together in Chicago, and it is not unlikely they may hold meetings conjointly in this city.

CLUB AND PLAYERS' AVERAGES. The Home Team's Figurers Put It In a Good Position.

The Journal's reports of the games played by the Indianapolis team at home and abroad during the season just closed form the basis for the following tabulated statement of the batting averages of the members of the club. It also shows the number of first-base hits, sacrifice hits and runs scored, with which each player has been credited. It will be understood that these figures are not official, but they are sufficiently accurate for the purpose, and official figures will not greatly change the Journal's showing. Brouthers leads the League in batting with a per cent. of .354, and it will be observed that Glasscock is only three points behind the famous slugger with .351. It is probable, however, that the official figures will place Jack in the lead, as the Boston papers, from which Brouthers's averages are compiled, are notoriously partial to the big first-baseman. According to their reports, Brouthers has been 483 times at bat, scored 103 runs, made 171 hits, 36 sacrifice hits, and has a general average of .354. Tiernan, of New York, who follows Glasscock, has been 499 times at bat, scored 147 runs, made 168 hits, 27 sacrifice hits, and has an average of .337. Gore and Ewing follow Tiernan with averages, respectively, of .325 and .323, while Connor of New York, Carroll of Pittsburg, and Anson of Chicago, tie in sixth place with .321. In general team averages New York leads in batting with .279, and Indianapolis is second, with .273. The others follow in this order: Chicago, .267; Boston. .265; Philadelphia, .263; Washington, .252; fielding the clubs stand as follows: Cleveland, .936; Indianapolis, .929; Pittsburg, .929; Boston, 928; Philadelphia, .926; New York, .922; Chicago, .913, and Washington, .901. The Indianapolis players occupy the following relative positions among the League players: Short-stops, Glasscock first, with an average of .917. Third-basemen, Denny first; average, .908. Second-basemen, Bassett third; average, .935. First-basemen, Hines ninth; average, .959. Left-fielders, Seery eighth; average, .903. Center-fielders, Hines first; average, .971; Sullivan eighth; average, .912; Andrews ninth; average, .900. Right-fielders, McGeachy fourth; average, .936. Catchers, Buckley ninth; average, .899; Myers eleventh; av-erage, .892; Daily twelfth; average, .886; Sommers fourteenth; average, .876. Pitchers, Rusie twentieth; average (of earned runs off delivery), 2.81; Boyle twenty-second; average, 2.90; Getzein twenty-fifth;

readily seen that the Hoosier players are as good as the best. The poor showing of the club's pitchers accounts for its position in the League race. Glasscock leads his club in hitting, fielding, base-running and runs scored, while McGeachy leads in sacrifice hitting. Glasscock's record of 203 hits has never been equaled by a League player in a season's play, and fair showing will put him at the head of the list, the leading batter of the country. Denny has scored nineteen home runs and is surpassed by but one other player—Thompson, of Philadelphia, who has made twenty-two. There is not a member of the team but is deserving of hearty praise for his season's work, and not one of them whose release would meet with the approval of the local lovers of the great game. The club is out for the penant next year. All it needs is pitching talent and it will surely have it.

Exhibition Games.

Manager Glasscock has arranged thirteen exhibition games for the local club, eight of which will be played on the home grounds. The first will be with the St. Louis Browns. That team will be here on Friday, of this week, playing one game. The Kansas City team will be here on the 15th and 16th, and the Columbus the 24th, 25th and 26th, Cincinnati following on the 28th and 29th. On the 17th, 18th and 19th the Hoosiers will play in Columbus, and go to Cincinnati on the 30th and 31st.

Base-Ball Notes. Center-fielder Andrews left for his home at Philadelphia, yesterday, to attend to some private business. He will be back not later than next Sunday.

Manager Glasscock will probably not remain with the Hoosiers longer than the 20th, as he wishes to go home at that time. Denny will take charge of the team when Glasscock leaves it.

Entries for the Terre Haute Races-Horses

That Will Try to Lower Their Records. TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Oct. 7 .- For the races beginning to-morrow there are 136 entries, in addition to which Johnston will start to beat the pacing record, and Patron and Acolyte to beat the stallion record. The list of entries for the several races has been equaled nowhere this season, and in the 2:32 trot Wednesday, and the 2:27 trot Friday, the field is so large that the association has been compelled to split the races. In addition to this, the associa-tion has decided to give a $1,000 purse for a 2:16 trot on Friday. For this race Budd Doble has entered Jack, and W. H. McCarthy Geneva S. Ed Gears enters J. B. Manhattan Handicap Won by Los Angeles. JEROME PARK, Oct. 7 .- It was not a good day for horse-racing. The air was cold and damp, and the track was fetlock deep in mud. As a consequence the majority of owners decided to withdraw their horses rather than run the risk of injuring them. The withdrawl of Firenzi, Raceland, Salvator and Senorita from the Manhattan handicap was especially disappointing to the crowd. Although there was no racing at Marris Park not more than 6,000 were present at this track. First Race—Six furlongs. Fitzjames won; Pontiac second, Vivid third. Time, 1:1812.

Second Race-One mile. Bravo won; Belle Wood second, Banflag third. Time, Third Race—One and one-eighth mile. Sluggard won; Sam Wood second, Bill Barnes third. Time, 2:0212. Fourth Race-Manhattan bandicap; one

THE MURDER OF KATIE HOOD.

It Was Done to Conceal Another Crime-What Captain Bruce Knows of the Case.

Facts concerning the mysterious death of Katie Hood, at Connersville, are in possession of Captain Bruce, of the Metropoliton police force of this city. They are of such a nature as to warrant the conclusion that a deliberate murder was committed Last night, to a Journal reporter, Captain Bruce said: "A short time ago a gentleman who lives at Connersville, and is well acquainted with all the parties in the affair, came to me and told the whole story. The girl had been betrayed and a resort was had to malpractice. To prevent the facts becoming public persons living in Conners-ville were hired to put the girl out of the way. This same gentleman also gave me the names of the persons who committed the murder."

"How is it, then, that the gentleman did not give the information to the authorities at Connersville?" asked the reporter. "Because he was afraid of Henry Lee Jones, who has since committed suicide." "Was Jones one of the parties to the

"He did not commit the murder himself, but he is suspected of having an interest in it, I have written a letter to the police authorities at Connersville giving them as near as possible the facts of the case, with the exception of the names, which I have withheld for the reason that it would be unfair to us here.' "How many persons were there who com-mitted the murder?"

"Two, a man and a woman, who are now being watched. I have also asked the officers at Connersville to keep their eyes on another party. There is, as you know, a reward of $500 for the arrest of the parties concerned I am going to send a man there shortly who will work plete the evidence.' "Are you sure this man and woman are the people you want?" "I am very sure these people are the guilty parties. The gentleman who told me is a responsible person, and his only reason in telling me was to see justice done. ENGLISH'S OPERA-HOUSE—"THE LAST DAYS

A fair-sized audience was in English's Opera-house, last night, to witness the initial presentation of John Fay Palmer's classic production, "The Last Days of Pompeii." The piece is the medium of a splendisplay of the spectacular, and the scenic effects employed are every respect worthy of the effort. The ensemble is good and the utmost care is taken in bring out those positions capable of the best artistice results. The story is kept close to that of the famons novel and the action is forcibly maintained. The spectacle will be repeated this and to-morrow evenings. PROF. BLACK'S CONCERT.

thirty-sixth annual concert, which will be held to-morrow evening at the Grand Opera-house, gives promise of a rare musical treat. The programme opens with a duet and scene from "Norma," by Misses Alice and Edith Graham. This will be followed by a cavatina from "Lucia di Lammermoor," by Edwin S. Swift, and "The Flower Greeting," by Misses Bick-nell, Fisher and Halford. Miss Nellie G Bicknell, Miss Lulu Fisher and Miss Jarnette Halford have other numbers on the programme. Charles Holman Black will sing four numbers, Mrs. Hester Spades will sing "Visions of Home," Mrs. Jessie Whitridge DeWolf, air and variations from "Carnival of Venice," and Mrs. F. W. Day, and Messrs. Swift, Fitzgibbons, Smock and Prof. Black will sing the glee, "Shades of the Heroes." The instrumental music will be solos, piano. H. J. Schonacker; violin. M. H. Spades; flute, Gustav A. Recker; accompanist, J. F. Kohl.

The programme for Prof. J. S. Black's fast ones are expected. This makes the total of purses offered by the association $15,000. The split of the 2:32 trot and the 2:27 trot has forced the association to add another day and an additional $1,000 for each purse. These two races, in addition to several special purses and matches, will be on Saturday. The pools to-night on the 2:19 trot and 2:21 pace sold lively. Lady Bullion and Hendryx are favorites in the 2:19 trot, with Gold Leaf and Almont in the front in all of the emotional scenes. She presents it in a manner that always meets with approval. The company is a good one as a whole, and "The Red Spider" will, no doubt, attract large andiences during its run, which will be until Thursday night. On that evening "Nobody's Claim" will be put on for the remainder of the week.

It is a good repertoire that Emma Abbott will present at the Grand next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, day, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, with her newly organized company. The Abbott operas are put on this season, so it is reported, with a degree of finish never before attempted in opera in America. In addition to the night operas, "Rose of Castile," "Il Trovatore" and "La Traviata," there will be a special Wednesday matinee, with two prime donne and full chorus and orchestra. "Fra Diavolo" is the bill, for which prices are reduced to 25, 50 and 75 cents. The night prices will be from 75 cents to $1.50 for seats reserved, according to location. The sale will open Thursday morning. Thursday morning. Charles S. Gayler's melodrama, "Lights and Shadows," is underlined for three nights at English's, beginning Thursday Hoyt's "A Midnight Bell" will follow Emma Abbott at the Grand.

Madison Pence Not Dead.

It now appears that the man killed by Emsley Wright was not Madison Pence Pence has been found, alive and well, on the farm of Mrs. Ferguson, a widow living five miles northeast of Alexandria. His half-brother, Frank Pence, of Anderson, heard that he was alive, and went, Sunday morning, to the home of Mrs. Ferguson to find out if the report were true. The supposed dead man was at Indianapolis during the week of the State fair, but came home and began working for Mrs. Ferguson the last of the week. Mr. Pence says he was at farmer Smith's, near Lawrence, Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 21 and 22. Mr. Smith is the man who first identified the fied the remains as those of Pence.

WHEN they find how rapidly health is restored by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. The reason is that this preparation contains only the purest and most powerful alteratives and conics. To thousands yearly it proves a veritable elixir of life.

Mrs. Jos. Lake, Brockway Centre, Mich., writes: "Liver complaint and indigestion made my life a burden and came near ending my existence. For more than four years I suffered untold agony. I was reduced almost to a skeleton, and hardly had strength to drag myself about. All kinds of food distressed me, and only the most delicate could be digested at all. Within the time mentioned several physicians treated me without giving relief. Nothing that I took seemed to do any permanent good until I began the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which has produced wonderful results. Soon after commencing to take the Sarsaparilla I could see an in my condition, my appetite began to return and with it came the ability to digest all the food taken, my strength improved each day, and after a few months of faithful attention to your directions, I found myself a well woman, able to attend to all household duties. The medicine has given me a new lease of life, and I cannot thank you too much."

"We, the undersigned, citizens of Brockway Centre, Mich., hereby certify that the above statement, made by Mrs. Lake, is true in every particular and entitled to full credence."-O. P. Chamberlain, G. W. Waring, C. A. Wells, Druggist.

"My brother, in England, was, for a long time, unable to attend to his occupation, by reason of sores on his foot. I sent him Ayer's Almanac and the tes-timonials it contained induced him to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After using it a little while, he was cured, and is now a well man, working in a sugar mill at Brisbane, Queensland, Australia."— A. Attewell, Sharbot Lake, Ontario.
